

GWALIOR GLORY SCHOOL

CIRCULAR OCTOBER 2025

CLASSES - III & V

"A smile is a curve that sets everything straight."

Dear All,

Good manners never go out of style. Whether you are at a dinner table, boarding a flight, sending an email or shopping in malls, our behavior makes us stand out amongst all. Small gestures of etiquettes makes a big difference. Here are some suggestions for you.

- The word etiquette is a French word which means 'ticket' or 'label'.
- Arrive on time - is a golden rule of life. Respect time, reach school, work place or other importance venues on time.
- Using left hand for greeting or accepting gifts is considered rude.
- Handshakes likely originated as a gesture to show you weren't holding a weapon.
- Dinner etiquettes – Wait for all to be served on a table before you start eating. Burping, slurping is a big NO.
- Keep you voice and music volume low in public place.
- Respect for elders is non-negotiable – always greet elders first, stand up when elders enter room and offer them place to sit.
- Queueing etiquette – at the airport, banks, offices and billing counters wait for your turn.
- Throwing garbage on road from moving vehicles and spitting is highly unacceptable.
